

Alex Ohlsson is the managing partner of Carey Olsen's Jersey office. He specialises in finance and corporate law and has particular expertise in structured finance transactions and corporate transactional work. He is regularly instructed by leading global law firms and financial institutions. He is recognised by Chambers as one of Jersey's leading corporate and finance lawyers.

Alex is a regular visitor to Asia. He acted in relation to the recent approval of Jersey companies for listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange. He has also advised in the IPO of a number of Chinese companies on the London Stock Exchange.

He is an advisory board member of Jersey Finance Limited as well as being a member of the Financial and Commercial Law Sub-Committee of the Jersey Law Society.