

Robert Kirkby joined Jersey Finance as Technical Director in January 2007. During the last few years Robert has worked on many of the groups that have introduced regulatory and law changes, including the Foundations Law, Companies amendment 9 & 10, the introduction of unregulated funds etc. Robert has also been fortunate enough to lead the promotion of Jersey's Financial Services offering in North East Asia, working on the HKSE listing of Jersey companies and the recent opening of the Jersey Finance Hong Kong office.

Previous to Jersey Finance Robert was an accountant with PricewaterhouseCoopers in Jersey, London and New Zealand practising international tax. He is married with two young sons and is an active member of the local Caesarean Cycling Club.
