

MAPLES

Maples Jersey Bursary Scheme

What We Can Offer

Our bursary scheme is very important to us and we have invested a significant amount of time in considering what we can offer to our bursary students and crafting the best possible experience and ongoing support. The following is available to qualified candidates:

- A financial contribution towards your studies.
- An annual structured work experience placement with a number of scheduled activities and outcomes for each student. We make every effort to ensure that you will work with a number of members of the team and be exposed to an interesting and diverse range of work.
- Ongoing support from key members of our team while completing your studies.

What We Are Looking For

Proactive students who have a willingness to be part of our team and demonstrate an eagerness to learn more about law and in developing their career will be considered for the scheme.

Application Information and Eligibility

Applications for our bursary scheme are considered annually and are now open.

We encourage applications from Channel Islands residents considering a career in law who are either: (i) 'A' level students in their final year of school applying for university, or (ii) attending university. We expect university students on the bursary scheme and applying for the bursary scheme to be obtaining a 2:1 classification of degree or above. Students who have obtained bursaries from any other law firms will not be eligible.

Applicants are invited to submit their CV together with a covering e-mail explaining why they are applying for a bursary at Maples, to: jersey@maplesandcalder.com.
